

Information – Job applicants

Who are we and what do we do with your personal data?

Aquafil S.p.A., hereinafter the Data Controller, protects the confidentiality of your personal data and provides it with the necessary protection from any event that may put it at risk of violation.

For this purpose, the Data Controller implements policies and practices regarding the collection and use of personal data and the exercise of your rights under applicable law. The Data Controller is responsible for updating the policies and practices adopted for the protection of personal data whenever necessary and in any case in the event of regulatory and organisational changes that may affect the processing of your personal data.

How does the Data Controller collect and process your data?

The Data Controller collects and/or receives information about you, such as:

- name, surname, tax code, images, date of birth, physical and electronic address, land line and/or mobile phone number;
- CV data
- and also data relating to your state of health if communicated by you also through the curriculum vitae or if the position for which you are applying is reserved for protected categories
- IT data

Your personal information will be processed for:

1) personnel selection and/or starting a collaboration

Your personal data is processed in order to carry out the activities resulting from the management of personnel selection carried out by the Data Controller, such as:

- § the search for candidates for the positions requested by the Data Controller;
- § the collection of applications and curricula, which can be done by using two types of sources:
 - internal to the Data Controller (personnel recruitment ads by the Data Controller, referrals by the Data Controller's employees, CVs received spontaneously);
 - external to the Data Controller (personnel recruitment ads through recruitment agencies, temp agencies, universities, schools, advertisements in newspapers, magazines, specialised publications);
- § the examination of the curricula received for an initial screening;
- § the organisation of selective interviews;
- § the inclusion of the most suitable candidate in the organisational context of the Data Controller;
- § the fulfilment of specific obligations and the carrying-out of specific tasks deriving from laws, regulations or collective labour agreements, including those of the company, in particular for establishing an employment and/or collaboration relationship, as well as for identifying facilitations applicable to any contractual relationship with persons belonging to protected categories.

Your personal data is also collected from third parties such as, for example:

- private individuals who carry out staff leasing, intermediation, personnel recruitment and selection, training and support activities for professional relocation

Where applicable, you have the right to rectify data issued or collected by the Data Controller.

The data collected or in any case obtained by the Data Controller following the established selection procedure for available positions within his organization, except for those relating to the state of health, spontaneously released by you, must be considered necessary and failure to provide it entails the impossibility for the Data Controller to follow up on activities aimed at:

- evaluate your application in the personnel selection process which the Data Controller follows also through its suppliers (third parties/recipients);

- manage the candidate selection process in all its phases and the obligations that arise from it.

2) communication to third parties and recipients

Your data will not be disclosed to third parties/recipients for their own purposes unless:

1. you authorise to do so.

Your data will not be disclosed to third parties/recipients if:

1. it is necessary for the fulfilment of obligations depending on law regulations governing it (e.g. for the defence of your rights, etc.);
2. the communication is made to job consultant.

Your personal data will not be disclosed in any way to indeterminate and non-identifiable subjects, not even as third parties.

The communication concerns the categories of data whose transmission is necessary for carrying out the activities and purposes pursued by the Data Controller in managing the selection procedure. The relevant processing does not require the consent of the interested party in the event that the same occurs to carry out the obligations deriving from the established relationship or in the event that another hypothesis of exclusion should be used (in particular the traceability of a legitimate interest by the Data Controller), expressly foreseen or dependent on the legislation and regulations applied by the Data Controller, or also through third parties identified as data controllers. Where the communication involves data suitable for revealing the state of health, the related processing operations will take place with all the necessary guarantees including those which, if requested based on the risks detected, determine the application of pseudonymisation solutions, and/or aggregation and/or encryption of data.

How, where and for how long is your data retained?

Data processing is carried out on paper or through IT procedures by internal subjects authorised and trained for this purpose. They are granted access to your personal data to the extent and within the limits required for carrying out the processing activities that concern you. Your data, especially those belonging to special categories, is processed separately from other data also by means of pseudonymisation or aggregation methods that do not allow you to be easily identified.

The Data Controller periodically checks the tools by means of which your data is processed and its security measures, which it constantly updates; it makes sure, also through the subjects authorised to process the data, that personal data for which processing is not necessary is not collected, processed, stored or retained; it makes sure that the data is retained with the guarantee of integrity and authenticity of its use for the purposes of the processing actually carried out.

Where

The data is retained on paper, computer and electronic files located within the European Economic Area, and appropriate security measures are ensured.

Personal data communicated to Group companies based in countries outside the European Economic Area, in order to carry out the activities envisaged by the contract signed with the Joint Controllers, it will be applied the standard contractual clauses.

How long

Personal data processed by the Data Controller is retained for the time necessary to carry out the activities related to the selection of the applicant. This is without prejudice to the cases in which the rights depending on the processing in place should be asserted in court, in which case your data, only that necessary for these purposes, will be processed for the time necessary to pursue them.

This is without prejudice to your right to oppose at any time the processing based on legitimate interest for reasons related to your particular situation.

What are your rights?

In substance, at any time and as long as the processing continues, free of charge and without any special charges or formalities for your request, you can:

- obtain confirmation of the processing carried out by the Data Controller;
- access your personal data and know its origin (when the data is not obtained directly from you), the purposes of the processing, the data of the subjects to whom it is communicated, the period of retention of your data or the criteria used to determine it;
- update or rectify your personal data so that it is always accurate and correct;
- erase your personal data from the databases and/or files, including backup files, of the Data Controller, if, among other things, it is no longer necessary for the purposes of the processing or if this is deemed unlawful, and provided that the conditions laid down by law are met; and in any event if the processing is not justified by another equally legitimate reason;
- restrict the processing of your personal data in some circumstances, for example if you have contested its accuracy, for the period required for the Data Controller to check its accuracy. You must also be informed, in reasonable time, of when the period of suspension has ended or the cause of the restriction of processing has ceased to exist, and therefore the restriction itself withdrawn;

- obtain your personal data, if received or processed by the Data Controller with your consent and/or if its processing is carried out on the basis of a contract and with automated tools, in electronic format also in order to transmit it to another data controller.

The Data Controller must do so without delay and, in any case, at the latest within one month of receipt of your request. The time limit can be extended by two months, if necessary, taking into account the complexity and the number of requests received by the Data Controller. In such cases, the Data Controller will have to inform you of the reasons for the extension within one month of receipt of your request.

For any further information and to send your request, please contact the Data Controller at privacy@aquafil.com.

How and when can you oppose the processing of your personal data?

For reasons relating to your specific situation, you may oppose at any time the processing of your personal data if this is based on legitimate interest, by sending your request to the Data Controller at the address privacy@aquafil.com.

You have the right to have your personal data erased if there is no legitimate reason overriding the one that gave rise to your request.

Who can you complain to?

Without prejudice to any other administrative or judicial action, you may submit a complaint to the competent supervisory authority or to the authority that carries out its tasks and exercises its powers in Italy where you have your habitual residence or work or, if different, in the Member State where the violation of Regulation (EU) 2016/679 occurred.

Any update of this information will be communicated to you in a timely manner and by appropriate means and you will also be informed if the Data Controller will process your data for purposes other than those referred to in this information before carrying it out and in time to give your consent if necessary.
