Who are we and what do we do with your personal data?

Aquafil S.p.A., hereinafter the Data Controller, protects the confidentiality of your personal data and provides it with the necessary protection from any event that may put it at risk of violation.

For this purpose, the Data Controller implements policies and practices regarding the collection and use of personal data and the exercise of your rights under applicable law. The Data Controller is responsible for updating the policies and practices adopted for the protection of personal data whenever necessary and in any case in the event of regulatory and organisational changes that may affect the processing of your personal data.

How does the Data Controller collect and process your data?

Your personal data (such as name, surname, email, professional sector/company you belong to) are processed by the Data Controller (Aquafil S.p.a.) based on the consent to communication to third parties given by you to the latter's partner company.

Your personal data will be processed for:

1) Newsletter

If you have given consent to the communication of your personal data to the Company Aquafil S.p.a. for the sending of the latter's newsletter, the processing of your personal data takes place to offer you products and services of the Data Controller, or even improved or more suited to your needs and, finally, to send you information and advertising material.

The sending of informative/promotional material, through the use of your data (such as name, surname, e-mail address) can take place by:

- email

The processing in question takes place if you give your consent for the use of the data also with reference to the communication methods, both traditional and automated, with which the processing takes place. You can always revoke your consent by stopping the processing.

How, where and for how long is your data retained?

How

Data processing is carried out on paper or through IT procedures by internal subjects authorised and trained for this purpose. They are granted access to your personal data to the extent and within the limits required for carrying out the processing activities that concern you.

The Data Controller periodically checks the tools by means of which your data is processed and its security measures, which it constantly updates; it makes sure, also through the subjects authorised to process the data, that personal data for which processing is not necessary is not collected, processed, stored or retained; it makes sure that the data is retained with the guarantee of integrity and authenticity of its use for the purposes of the processing actually carried out.

Where

The data is retained on paper, computer and electronic files located within the European Economic Area, and appropriate security measures are ensured.

How long

The personal data processed by the Data Controller for marketing purposes (direct, market research and surveys) will be retained for 24 months by the Data Controller unless, following the exercise of your rights, you request to delete the data.

What are your rights?

In substance, at any time and free of charge and without any special charges or formalities for your request, you can:

- obtain confirmation of the processing carried out by the Data Controller;
- access your personal data and know its origin (when the data is not obtained directly from you), the purposes of the processing, the data of the subjects to whom it is communicated, the period of retention of your data or the criteria used to determine it;
- withdraw your consent at any time if this is the basis for the processing. In any case, the withdrawal of consent does not affect the lawfulness of processing based on consent before its withdrawal;
- update or rectify your personal data so that it is always accurate and correct;
- erase your personal data from the databases and/or files, including backup files, of the Data Controller, if, among other things, it is no longer necessary for the purposes of the processing or if this is deemed unlawful, and provided that the conditions laid down by law are met; and in any event if the processing is not justified by another equally legitimate reason;
- restrict the processing of your personal data in some circumstances, for example if you have contested its accuracy, for the period required for the Data Controller to check its accuracy. You must also be informed, in reasonable time, of when the period of suspension has ended or the cause of the restriction of processing has ceased to exist, and therefore the restriction itself withdrawn;
- obtain your personal data, if received and/or in any case processed by the Data Controller with your consent and/or if its processing is carried out on the basis of a contract and with automated tools, in electronic format also in order to transmit it to another data controller.

The Data Controller must do so without delay and, in any case, at the latest within one month of receipt of your request. The time limit can be extended by two months, if necessary, taking into account the complexity and the number of requests received by the Data Controller. In such cases, the Data Controller will inform you of the reasons for the extension within one month of receipt of your request.

For any further information and to send your request, please contact the Data Controller at privacy@aquafil.com

How and when can you oppose the processing of your personal data?

For reasons relating to your specific situation, you may oppose at any time the processing of your personal data if this is based on legitimate interest or if it is for marketing purposes (direct marketing, market surveys), by sending your request to the Data Controller at the email address privacy@aquafil.com

You have the right to have your personal data erased if there is no legitimate reason overriding the one that gave rise to your request, and in any case if you have opposed the processing for marketing purposes (direct marketing, market surveys).
